4. SALES, GIFTS & TRANSFERS. Have you or your spouse made any sale, gift or transfer of money or property (anything of value whatsoever) to anyone (any third parties, friends, relatives, family members or corporations) within the past 10 years?  Yes  No If so, give the date/year of transfer? _____

Describe property transferred: _____ Value of property transferred? _____

Describe what you or your spouse received in exchange for the transfer? _____

Was there a loan against the property transferred?  Yes  No If so, what was the payoff balance of the loan? _____ Was the loan paid off?  Yes  No

5. BANK ACCOUNTS WITH CREDITORS. Do you have a checking, savings or other type of cash or investment account with any of your creditors (any financial institution to whom you owe any money)?  Yes  No

If so, list the name of the creditors: (a) _____ (b) _____

Most financial institutions have a right to offset any debts you owe against any deposits you have in any deposit accounts. Immediately stop depositing any money into any accounts maintained at any bank, credit union, or other entity to whom you owe any money for any reason. Draw down the account balances to a small amount of money, or completely close the account. Stop all automatic payroll deposits into any such accounts.

6. INHERITANCES. Do you or your spouse expect to inherit anything within the next 1 year?  Yes  No

9. CLAIMS. Do you believe (or has anyone advised you) that you may have a claim against any third person to recover money or damages as a result of any improper conduct, including personal injury claims, malpractice claims, breach of contract, fraud or many other wrongful conduct? Answer "Yes" if you believe you have a right to recover money from any third person for any reason, regardless of whether or not you have already consulted an attorney or filed a lawsuit to collect the money  Yes  No If so, please describe the circumstances possible value of the claim.

Circumstances relating to Claim: _____

Value of Claim: _____ If you file for bankruptcy, you must describe all such claims on your asset list. If you do not reveal the claim as an asset, the claim may be completely barred and you will not be entitled to recover on the claim. For example, if you have been injured in an automobile accident because of the negligence of another driver, you must disclose the claim on the bankruptcy asset list. If you fail to list the claim on the bankruptcy asset list, and later decide to assert the claim or file a lawsuit against the negligent driver, the negligent driver will not owe you any money and you will not be entitled to recover any damages simply because you failed to list the claim on the bankruptcy asset list. This rule applies regardless of the value of the claim.

UNSECURED CREDITORS

- List the name and approximate total amount owed to all of your creditors, except for secured loans such as real estate loans, home equity loans and vehicle loans. You will list these debts later. FREE CONSULTATION

For consumer bankruptcy consultations, the initial consultation with Mr. Weber is free of charge. There is no obligation to pay a consultation fee if you decide not to retain our firm. If you decide to retain us and open a bankruptcy case file, you will then meet either with a paralegal (or with Mr. Weber, if a paralegal is not available) to review the bankruptcy paperwork required to begin processing your case. We will normally request you to make a $200 down payment toward the legal fees that will be charged for representing you in the bankruptcy case. If you decide not to complete the bankruptcy case after we have already opened a file, all legal fees are deemed earned when paid and are NOT REFUNDABLE. Mr. Weber, in his discretion, may refund any fees paid in excess of the initial down payment, depending on the status of the case at the time the refund is requested.
